

Malki Museum's

Agave Harvest & Roast

The Agave Harvest and Tasting is an annual event sponsored by the Malki Museum. It is held on two consecutive Saturdays in mid- to-late April, when the Agave plants were traditionally gathered. The agave or amul was a basic food staple for the Cahuilla and Kumeyaay Indians of Southern California.

Agave Harvest

Saturday & Sunday | April 6-7 2019
to meet at 10AM

Daniel McCarthy, Malki Museum's Board President will give a lecture on the historical uses of Agave. Attendees will have the opportunity to assist in gathering the agave.

Location: Cahuilla Tewanet Overlook on the Palms to Pines Highway (Hwy. 74)

Cost: $10 donation appreciated.

Bring with you: sturdy walking shoes, water, sunscreen, and leather gloves (if you would like to help harvest the agave)

Reservations Recommended: Please call

(951) 849 7289

Agave Roast

Saturday || April 13, 2019
10:00AM-4:00PM

The agave roast and tasting allows visitors to taste agave and other native foods. Various food demonstrations and Bird Singing will fill the day with learning and yummy food! Great event for families!

Malki Museum 11-795 Malki Rd. Banning CA
92220

10:00 AM - Agave taken from pit and event starts

12:00 Noon - Lunch is Served

(Cost: $10 donation per plate appreciated)

EVENT FREE and OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!!