

Conversational Cahuilla Classes

Anyone interested in learning the basics of the Cahuilla language is welcome to join our conversational Cahuilla classes every Thursday for an 10 week course.

Classes will take place from November 2, 2017 through January 25, 2018.

The Class is designed for all levels of Cahuilla learners, families are encouraged to attend! This event is free and open to the public!

Instructor: Raymond Huaute

When: Thursdays | Nov. 2nd, 9th, 16th, 30th *no class Nov. 23rd

Dec. 7th, 14th *no class Dec. 21st, 28th

Jan. 4th, 11th, 18th, 25th

Location: Malki Museum Lecture Hall

11795 Malki Rd.

Banning, CA 92220

Time: 6:00PM-8:00PM

(1st hour is for Beginners and 2nd hour is for Intermediate)

For further information Please call (951)849-7289

Raymond Huaute is a Cahuilla and Chumash native. He is a Graduate of University of California, Riverside, his degree is in Native American Studies. He also studied Linguistics at the University of Arizona. He works as an educator for Morongo School and at Malki Museum helping preserve the Cahuilla language through his language classes.

