

Journal of California and Great Basin Anthropology

The Journal of California and Great Basin Anthropology is the only Anthropological Journal of California and features articles in all four areas of Anthropology: Linguistic, Biological, Archeological, and Cultural. It also features a regular book review section. The Journal publishes original manuscripts on the ethnography, ethno history, linguistics, art, archeology, and prehistory of the native peoples of Alta and Baja California and the Great Basin.

The Journal of California and Great Basin Anthropology is published twice a year by Malki Museum, Inc. under the auspices of Malki-Ballena Press Editorial Board, and in cooperation with the Department of Anthropology, San Diego State University, where the editorial offices are located. The publisher, Malki Museum, Inc., is a nonprofit educational institution incorporated by the State of California.

The Journal Editorial team is Dr. Lynn Gamble, Dr. Lowell Bean, Dr. Thomas Blackburn, and our new editorial team member, Kim Carpenter who will be our Associate editor covering the Great Basin.
