

Journal of California and Great Basin Anthropology

If you haven't subscribed do it today. DON'T MISS OUT

The Journal of California and Great Basin Anthropology is the only anthropological journal of California and features articles in all four areas of Anthropology: Linguistic, Biological, Archaeological, and Cultural. It also features a regular book review section. The Journal publishes original works on the ethnography, ethno history, linguistics, art, archeology, and prehistory of the Native Peoples of Alta and Baja California as well as the Great Basin.

The Journal of California and Great Basin Anthropology is published twice a year by Malki Museum, Inc. under the auspices of Malki-Ballena Press Editorial Board, and in cooperation with escholarship, operated by the University of California Office of the President. The publisher, Malki Museum, Inc., is a nonprofit educational institution incorporated by the State of California.

Back Issues can be ordered from the Malki Museum. Each issue is $50.00 plus shipping. Remember if you subscribe to the Journal AFTER the drop ship you will have to pay extra shipping charges so get your subscriptions in today.

Malki Museum Membership has its privileges: Contributing Museum Memberships ($100.00 per year) receive a Journal subscription with their membership. If you become a member of the Malki Museum, you will also receive a 15% discount on all Malki-Ballena Press books. To become a Malki Museum Member today you can call 951-849-7289, or visit our website: www.MalkiMuseum.org for additional membership categories, information, and an application.
